

A Business Management Opportunity in the Relocation Industry

Global Orientations is a solid, proven business that provides personalized tours and orientations as well as related relocation services for new hires, transferees, employment candidates, and international assignees. After establishing a successful business model in the Midwest, we are currently seeking Area Business Management Candidates to represent our brand in select cities.

Take Charge of Your Future.

- Leverage your network and relationships
- Apply your knowledge
- Fill a niche in the relocation process
- Join an established brand
- Be your own boss and/or hire relocation guides

Learn More.

With low start-up costs and high support from the headquarters office, you can take charge of your future and provide a much needed service in the relocation industry.

Request more information by visiting us at www.globalorientations.com

