

Temporary Housing Management Services

Global Orientations provides fully-furnished short-term housing management services for military personnel, government employees, and select private sector organizations.

We believe that people on-the-move should have the finest temporary housing experience at the best possible rate. That is why we commit to personalized attention, in-unit hospitality services, and rapid response times for all service needs.

For optimal service and convenience, our clients have a single point of contact for all temporary housing related needs.

With each new contract award, Global Orientations creates a project and quality management plan for a smooth transition from existing suppliers or implementation of a new requirement.

Hospitality and Convenience Packages

Global Orientations has one of the most comforting and welcoming hospitality packages in the business for a hassle-free short-term housing experience.
